

CUBA - HAVANA

Havana is the capital city of Cuba, the centre of commercial. The population of Havana is 2,1 million.

The history of the city goes back 500 years when the Spanish colonies settled in the area. In 1959 Cuban Revolution happened. Fidel Castro and Ernesto 'CHE' Guevara battled against dictator Batista and they won the Gerilla war. Cuba has been ruled by socialism since the revolution. After the revolution, Cuba developed lots of ways.

Havana has got a lot of interesting places for the tourists like Vedado, El Capitolio, Vedado Skyline, Museo de la Revolucion, Fuente de Neptuno, Ell Morro Fortress and Cathedral of Havana. Tobaccos and CHE t-shirts are very popular. Tourists buy a lot of tobaccos and CHE t-shirts.

You do not need a visa to go to Cuba. You only need a passport. But flights to Europe take 17 hours.
